The temple of Veerabhadra Devaru at Bandalika in the Shikarpur Taluk, is endowed with the marginally-noted Devadaya inam lands (vide copy of the Inam Register obtained from the Inam Superintendent). From the records of enquiry received from the Deputy Commissioner of the Shimoga District, with his letters Nos. 443/25 and 1087/101, dated the 28th October 1905 and the 30th May 1906, respectively, it appears that the khate of the land in question somehow came to be transferred to the name of ~~the~~ one Mutchadi Krishnappa alias Subbappa who was doing the duties of Pujari and that he first hypothecated the land along with others of his own teone Seenappa Naik alias Sripati-Naik for Rs. 400 about 23 years ago, and that 6 years after, he sold the Devadaya Inam land to the alienee's younger brother Somaraya for a consideration of Rs. 200. How and when the land came to the possession of the alienor is not ascertainable from the records and it is reported by the Amildar that it is not possible to trace it out.

2. The land is now in the enjoyment of the purchaser's brother Seenappa Naik alias Sripati-Naik but the khate of it is in the name of his (purchaser's) son Rangappa. The seller, the purchaser, and the khatedar are all reported to be dead and it is said that no puja is now being conducted in the temple.

3. The present enjoyer of the land has deposed to the effect that the registered original Deeds of hypothecation and the sale executed by the deceased Krishnappa were destroyed by fire while he was in Plague Camp about 5 years ago. He agreed in the first instance before the Amildar to see that the intended services were rendered in the temple but subsequently withdrew his statement and submitted a petition that he could not do so unless the jodi on the land was remitted.

4. In these circumstances, the Amildar and the Deputy Commissioner both recommend the resumption of the land from the alienee and its restoration to the temple.

5 This recommendation is in accordance with clause B, Rule II of the Alienation Rules of 1877, a printed copy of which is put up for reference.

6. The Deputy Commissioner says that he will appoint a separate Pujari for the temple.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that Registered Survey No. 19 measuring 21 guntas assessed at Rupees 2 is a Devadaya Inam land endowed to the temple of Virbudra Devaru at Bandhika in Shikarpur Taluk. Inam Title deed No 686 granted is enclosed with the record. The object of the Inam is not carried out and it is in the possession of Sunapa Nath of Chikkerur in Dharwar District. On enquiry made it is ascertained that the above land was in the Khata of one Krishtappa of Agrahara Muttadi who has sold and transferred the Khata of it along with others to the present pos-essor Semappa Hark for a good consideration some 27 years ago.

The purchaser declines to give anything to the Institution.

2. The Sale of Deve Daya
land is invalid and under clause B. of Notification No. 266 dated 17th November 1877 permission is sought to resume and restore the land to the Institution.

3. The vernacular records
are enclosed.

I have the honor to be
